MUST HAVE PROOF TO BUY SURPLUSES

Government-Owned Goods Be Bought Only By Those Who Hold Certificates

Atlanta, Sept. 2.—Duplicates in lieu of lost certificates for priority in the purchase of government-owned surplus property will be issued veterans of World War II only upon presentation of a notarized affidavit and after a 30-day period in which to check sales records. H. L. Kenyon, regional director of War Assets Administration, 609 Pence deLeon avenue, announced.

Demand for duplicates in lieu of lost certificates has grown heavy during recent weeks as more and more veterans take advantage of their higher priority in purchasing surplus of officials of the Veterans' Division of War Assets.

Forms to make sworn application for duplicates in lieu of lost certificates are available at WAA Veterans' Certification offices located in the regional WAA office, Atlanta; Spencer building, Columbus; Memphis; and Birmingham; Southeastern Shipbuilding Corporation, Savannah; 2314 Broad street Albany; and Veterans' Armory on First street, Macon.

Although this form provides for the enumeration of purchases already made by the veteran before loss of verification, a 30-day period from the date of application for duplication will be taken for a thorough check of sales records to determine whether the veteran had previously bought all the surplus for which he was originally certified.

Mr. Kenyon also renewed his request that veterans immediately notify the Veterans' Division of the Atlanta WAA office of any change of address. The Atlanta office holds numerous certifications turned in by veterans at automotive sales which have been returned because of lack of proper mail address.

Teacher Shortage
Faced Coming Year Georgia is now facing one of the most serious teacher shortages in the history of its public schools, according to Mr. A. J. Allman, assistant state school superintendent.

More remunerative positions, in the attractive and mercantile fields, caused some of the instructors to leave the classroom. Furthermore, with the war over, a number of teachers are returning to their former occupation of housewife. Then, too, said Dr. Allman, the colleges are not turning out as many teachers as heretofore.

So, in spite of the recent 50 per cent increase in salary for the instructors, the personnel problem looms large and something of a crisis is at hand with the opening of the fall term.

Last year, seven thousand Georgia teachers departed from the school profession, whereas the number of new recruits totalled only 445, or less than one-fourteenth the number leaving.

The new pay schedule elevates Georgia's teacher-salary scale to a point above all the other Southeastern states, but it must become better stabilized before many teachers can be drawn in from out of the state.
However, quite a number of Georgians teaching in other states want to come home, and these are making inquiry as to the improved rate of compensation, Allman asserted. But as yet, he continued, the 50 per cent raise is only for the last four months of this year and its continuance

PROPOSED AIRLINE GROWING IN SCOPE

Southern Airways Rated
As Eighth Among Largest
Now In Active Operation

The Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington during the current hearing for certification of an airline service into Statesboro was quoted by Abbot P. Mills, attorney for Southern Airways Inc., as saying that "Southern Airways is the outstanding applicant for feeder routes in the southeast." The Southern Airways attorney further stated that Southern Airways "is fit, willing and able" to undertake the routes, and that which allotment would make Southern Airways the eighth largest operation in the United States.

The importance of this feeder allocation on the part of the Civil Aeronautics Board is obvious in that it would provide air connections between the cotton market of Memphis, Tenn., and the textile centers of the Carolinas such as Greenville, Spartanburg and Charlotte, and other major markets like Charleston, S. C., Savannah, Ga., Jacksonville, Fla., Atlanta, Ga., Birmingham and Mobile, Ala., and would constitute five major routes into sixty-one cities of some 3,500 air miles serving a population of 2,600,000 in seven southeastern states.

Counsel for Southern Airways also in applauding the Civil Aeronautics Board's complaint to Southern Airways as a feeder operation, recommended that this company be certified for a three-year period, thus linking these sixty-one cities, many of which do not have air service at the present time.

Submitted as evidence in the hearing were facts concerning the background and aviation experience of the Southern Airways group of associated companies dating back to 1929, ably qualify Southern Airways to render this service.

It was also suggested that Southern Airways be permitted to serve all of the cities recommended by the Civil Aeronautics Board's Examiners and it was further pointed out that the route pattern proposed by Southern Airways is very similar in many respects to the seven new airline companies that have so far been approved by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Statesboro is listed an important point in this expanded airway pattern as pointed out by Attorney Mills and would contribute greatly to the development of the southeast and the progress of each city in the pattern.

Frank W. Hulse, president of Southern Airways, and L. R. Ball, treasurer, attended the hearing at which they were represented by Abbot P. Mills and Cecil A. Beasley Jr.

The hearing was presided over by Harlee Branch with CAB members, Josh Lee and Clarence M. Young, also in attendance.

50 Counties Plan For Better Hospitals
Plans by fifty Georgia counties to build new hospitals or improve facilities in present ones have been announced by John Ransom, health consultant for the State Department of Public Health, in a survey being made for future hospital expansion.

The program will be put into effect as soon as federal funds are available under the recently passed Hill-Burton act, now awaiting congressional appropriation.

Georgia's share of the federal funds will be $5,000,000 annually for a period of five years, with local groups putting up two-thirds of the cost of their proposed hospital to the federal government's one-third. Approximately $80,000 of this fund has already been allocated to the state for survey and planning activities, according to announcement in Washington by Surgeon General Thomas H. Parran, of United States Public Health Service.

New hospitals would range from institutions containing thirty beds to those containing 150, Ransom said. With a national average of approximately four beds per 1,000 population, Georgia averages but two beds per 1,000.

Applying, Carroll, Clay, Cook, Emanuel, Hart, Jasper, Mitchell, Putnam, Screven, Telfair and Worth. Those planning to enlarge present facilities include Clark, Douglas, Elbert, Spaulding and Thomas.

Although at present no financial aid to hospitals is offered by the state, it is considered possible there will be some assistance of this kind by the time federal funds are available.

WAGE CAMPAIGN CONSERVE TREES

Development Council Will Be Organized At Meeting Of State Civic Leaders

The organizational meeting of the Georgia Forestry Development Council has been set for next Tuesday, September 10. This was announced by State Forester J. M. Tinker, under whose guidance the new body is being formed.

The new council, to serve as an aide to the State Department of Forestry, is composed of the leaders of all civic clubs, the American Legion, press and radio, forestry and lumber associations, women's clubs and large wood-using industrial concerns.

Its first move, Mr. Tinker disclosed, will be to endorse a statewide forest fire prevention drive this fall and to adopt numerous advertising and publicity co-operative undertakings which will call public attention to the campaign.

"When the legislature reconvenes," Mr. Tinker said, "I hope the council will endorse the Department of Forestry's proposed bill calling for statewide forest protection and a greatly expanded tree-planting program. Until then, however, it will concentrate on reducing our disgraceful forest fire loss by urging public co-operation."

HOLD REVIVAL SERVICE AT LAWRENCE CHURCH
The annual revival service of the Lawrence Missionary Baptist church will begin Monday evening, September 9, at 7:30 o'clock. Morning services each day at 11 o'clock, and evenings at 7:30. The services will close Sunday, September 15th. This is an annual home-coming day and will be celebrated with dinner served at the church and an afternoon devoted to singing. The singing will be led by Rufus Anderson, of Statesboro, and the preaching will be done by Rev.
Woodrow Wilson Richardson, of Macon. The public is invited to attend.

FEATURES OF FHA ACT EXPLAINED

State Director Vansant
Discusses Phases of New Regulations Now Operative

The newly created Farmers' Home Administration under terms of the act signed by the President August 14 will provide basic legislation for the lending and supervisory functions of the Farm Security Administration.
R. L. Vansant, state FSA director, said this week.

Heretofore, he explained, the Farm Security Administration has been operating as an executive order agency each year and placed certain restrictions in the appropriation act.
The principal change, therefore, as it affects the Farm Security Administration, will be a change in name, and the act also abolishes the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration and transfers its functions to the new Farmers' Home Administration.

Here are the principal features of the new Farmers' Home Administration, as enumerated by Mr. Vansant: First, the rehabilitation program of the Farm Security Administration in the future will be known as a production and subsistence loan program. The purpose for which loans can be made embracing all farm operations, including seed, feed, fertilizers, livestock and workshop. These loans will be available only to farmers who are unable to obtain credit upon reasonable terms from other sources.

In the farm ownership program, the principal changes were in an increase in the interest rate on farm ownership loans from three to three and one-half percent and the broadening of provisions of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant act to fit the needs of veterans.

Farm ownership loans are made for the outright purchase of a farm and for buildings and improvements for the benefit of veterans, tenants, share-croppers and laborers. They extend for a maximum of forty years. Mr.
Vansant said the new interest rate would apply only to loans made since the new act became law and it would not affect purchase contracts existing to that date.

Under terms of the act, Mr. Vansant said, a veteran may obtain a loan to enlarge, repair or improve a family-type farm. The act also authorizes loans to disabled veterans for the purchase of small acreage, when it can be shown that the income from the acreage purchased plus the veteran's disability pay will be sufficient for the family and to enable the veteran to repay the loan.

An entirely new feature is the title authorizing the insurance of mortgages on family-type farms to be purchased by veterans, tenants, share-croppers and laborers. Under the terms of this act, the government would insure private loans in an amount not to exceed 90 percent of the reasonable value of the farm and the necessary repairs and improvements in a manner similar to the insurance features of the Federal Home-Loan act for the benefit of city residents.

The mortgage insurance section, however, will not take effect until the congress appropriates funds to activate this section, Mr. Vansant said.
Provision is made to continue the liquidation of projects begun by the old Relief Administration and Resettlement Administration, but this section is of minor significance, Mr.
Vansant said, inasmuch as all of the projects in this section have been liquidated.

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories:
We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil.

The steel industry takes pride in the way it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plow share to the giant combine—have multiplied in number and increased vastly in quality.
